

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOMS

HIBERNIANS.

The Rev. Edward Flannery, of Watertown, state chaplain of the A. O. H., recently celebrated his silver jubilee. His parishioners presented him with a gift of $1,500, which he found under his plate at breakfast. A number of visiting priests took part in the celebration.

EASTERN STAR.

A membership of 15,531 in the state was reported at the 46th annual meeting of the Grand Chapter of Connecticut, Order of the Eastern Star, at New Haven, Thursday. Mrs. Ada T. Danbury, grand matron, presided at the session. The following officers were elected:

Grand Matron, Miss M. Louise Gland, Bridgeport; grand patron, Frederick L. Fleetham, Deep River; associate grand matron, Mrs. Hattie M. Stickle, Newington; grand secretary, Mrs. Harriet L. Burwell, Winsted; grand treasurer, Mrs. Bertha L. S. Gallup, Moosup.

The reports of the officers including that of Mrs. Harriet L. Burwell of Winsted, grand secretary, showed that there were on January 1 last, 13,531 members of the order in the state a net increase of 131 for the year 1919. There were initiated during the year 1,534 new members, 85 were affiliated, eleven were reinstated and 21 expelled by suspension. The principal losses were: Demitted, 152, stricken from rolls, 46, suspended, 15, expelled, 1, deaths, 181.

The grand chapter receipts were $1,796.27 for the general fund. There was received for the Robert Morris Memorial fund, for the establishment of an Eastern Star home, $225.46 and the contribution of the various chapters to the Masonic home totaled $1,255.42.

LADIES' AUXILIARY, A. O. H.

The meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary, Division No. 13, A. O. H., which was to have been held Tuesday evening, was postponed until the next meeting night, the second Tuesday of the month.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

The regular meeting of Norwich branch, No. 172, P. of H., was held in Grand hall, Wednesday evening with Worthington M. Johnson, president, presiding. After the regular routine of business a class of ten candidates was obligated in the third and fourth degrees. The recently elected officers were installed, with the exception of three who were absent and will be installed at the next meeting.

NORWICH PROOF

Should Convince Every Norwich Reader.

The frank statement of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy, bids you pause and believe.

The same endorsement. By some stranger far away. Commands no belief at all.

Here's a Norwich case.

A Norwich citizen testifies.

Read and be convinced.

Hiram U. Neff, 454 East Main Street, says:

"I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a number of years for attacks of kidney trouble and rheumatic pains. The pain settled mostly in my back, across my kidneys and at times I could scarcely get around. I could hardly stoop or straighten on account of the pain when I had these attacks. My kidneys also acted irregularly and the secretions have been unnatural at such times. I have bought Doan's Kidney Pills at Sevin & Son's Drug Store and they have always removed the pains and regulated my kidneys."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Neff had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The first teachers' meeting with Superintendent Green was held last week Friday afternoon at the Green. The teachers like Friday better than Tuesday, the day formerly appointed for their meeting, as it gives a little extra time for their week-end plans.

Westminster items for the week ending Jan. 17, in some way were held up in transit, and appeared in this week's Tuesday Bulletin.

That January might have at least a sample of every kind of weather over included in its 31 days. Wednesday gave us a genuine January thaw!

Nathan Green is able to be around again, after his serious accident, and is receiving congratulations on his recovery. His father is ill with a cold, which confines him to the house.

Shortly after setting the political bee in his bonnet the average man gets it in the neck.

Three Polish boys about ten years of age left school Thursday afternoon, mounted a passing truck and took a ride out into the country. The boys did not return at night. Superintendent Clement was notified Friday morning.

The matter was reported to Officer Dolan Friday forenoon, he with the aid of the telephone located the boys on a Lisbon farm. The boys' mothers formed a committee of three, proceeded to said farm and claimed the boys. It is said that they carried a liberal supply of straw oil.

Mrs. Mar. Ashland theatre, Monday, 2:30, 6:45, 8:30. Children 25c; adults 35c—40c.

The extension school held for four days this week at Pachaug proved to be most instructive and beneficial. The community spirit was the principal subject Friday and when the session closed everybody was enthusiastic regarding a community club.

Miss Stella Takman has one of the prominent parts on the comedy being rehearsed by members of the Ashland club.

Rev. Clinton H. Andrews, of Oxford, Mass., will preach as candidate at the Congregational church Sunday.

At the Methodist church the subject for Sunday morning will be "God's Word East, Present and Future. Epworth league at 4 p. m. Leader A. R. Sanders. Subject, Medical Science and Chinese Leadership. Preaching at 7 p. m. Rev. J. B. Aldrich, pastor.

At the Baptist church at 10:45 Sunday morning the pastor will, as usual, preach to the juniors and the subject of the message to the seniors will be "The Larger Life." Church school at noon with adult and junior men's Bible classes. Young People's meeting at 8:15 led by Miss Alice Gilbert. At the vestry service at 7 o'clock, the prelude will deal with "The Night Colleges and Carrying the University to the Farm and Factory." Sermon topic, "The Right Road." Special gospel singing. Rev. M. D. Fuller, pastor evangelist.

The school in the Learned district has had another change of teachers. Mrs. Mayles who filled the vacancy caused by Miss Salmon's resignation in December was obliged to give up because of illness and after being closed two weeks, the school has opened this week with a new teacher.

Charles Budett and family have received word of the marriage in New Haven of Charles Budett, Jr., and Miss Elliott of that city, formerly a teacher in Haverhill, Mass.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds has three Plymouth Rock rooters hatched last April that weigh nine, eleven and thirteen pounds, respectively.

It has been remarked by a number of people in town that no deer have been seen this winter, while a few years ago as many as fifteen were seen at one time when they herded together before a storm.

L. J. Wilcox has been obliged to suspend work on the state road from Newent and Lisbon station for the winter and is building a new street in Tatville.

The large piles of logs ready for the steam sawmill near the highway at Charles Budett's, are an interesting sight. Several neighbors have improved the opportunity to haul in their logs.

J. Frank Knight has received word that his grandson, Sidney Knight, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the base hospital in New Haven, is improving slowly.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds will speak on Sunday morning on "Duties of the Hour." This is the time for the annual contribution of the church to the A. B. C. F. M.

Must Be Kept Down.

Wealth is wealth, and it must be denounced and destroyed; it must not be permitted to raise its shameful head among honest pauperism and indolence. —Housten Post.

Discovered Officially.

Anyway, one will have to hand it to the Department of Justice for not being obstinate. It admits its conviction that food poisoning is being practiced. —Marion Star.

Last year a British cotton thread company made profits of more than $18,000,000. It now announces a dividend of 40 per cent.

There were twenty-four numbers on the dance card, which, with encores and an intermission for lunch, served by John Woodward, superintendent of the Aspinook hotel, brought the hour of closing well into another day.

If there is one pleasing feature about the annual firemen's ball that stands out above another it is the hearty cooperation and feeling of good fellowship that goes to make the entertainment the success it never fails to be. The committee to whom all praise is due were:

Master of Ceremonies—Thomas Talbot.

Floor Director—Joseph McCarthy.

Aides—John Driscoll, James Dugan, James Morey, John Blake, John Wilson, Louis Maase.

Reception Committee—Jenny Morey, Dennis Griffin, Alfonso Fontaine, Maria Cassavant, John Sharkey, Wm. Greiner.

Committee of Arrangements—William McGinn, Thomas Wakely, Moss L. Johnson.

The night being fair was exceptionally favorable for visitors. They were present from Norwich, Willimantic, Groton, Uxbridge, Taftsville, Putnam, Plainfield, Moosup, Wauregan, Danielson, New London and Providence.

Not the least of the many enjoyable features of the ball is noted in the fact that among the three hundred and seventy-five persons there were a year ago were doing duty in the army or serving the flag in the various assignments of the navy.

Three Polish boys about ten years of age left school Thursday afternoon, mounted a passing truck and took a ride out into the country. The boys did not return at night. Superintendent Clement was notified Friday morning.

The matter was reported to Officer Dolan Friday forenoon, he with the aid of the telephone located the boys on a Lisbon farm. The boys' mothers formed a committee of three, proceeded to said farm and claimed the boys. It is said that they carried a liberal supply of straw oil.

Mrs. Mar. Ashland theatre, Monday, 2:30, 6:45, 8:30. Children 25c; adults 35c—40c.

The extension school held for four days this week at Pachaug proved to be most instructive and beneficial. The community spirit was the principal subject Friday and when the session closed everybody was enthusiastic regarding a community club.

Miss Stella Takman has one of the prominent parts on the comedy being rehearsed by members of the Ashland club.

Rev. Clinton H. Andrews, of Oxford, Mass., will preach as candidate at the Congregational church Sunday.

At the Methodist church the subject for Sunday morning will be "God's Word East, Present and Future. Epworth league at 4 p. m. Leader A. R. Sanders. Subject, Medical Science and Chinese Leadership. Preaching at 7 p. m. Rev. J. B. Aldrich, pastor.

At the Baptist church at 10:45 Sunday morning the pastor will, as usual, preach to the juniors and the subject of the message to the seniors will be "The Larger Life." Church school at noon with adult and junior men's Bible classes. Young People's meeting at 8:15 led by Miss Alice Gilbert. At the vestry service at 7 o'clock, the prelude will deal with "The Night Colleges and Carrying the University to the Farm and Factory." Sermon topic, "The Right Road." Special gospel singing. Rev. M. D. Fuller, pastor evangelist.

The school in the Learned district has had another change of teachers. Mrs. Mayles who filled the vacancy caused by Miss Salmon's resignation in December was obliged to give up because of illness and after being closed two weeks, the school has opened this week with a new teacher.

Charles Budett and family have received word of the marriage in New Haven of Charles Budett, Jr., and Miss Elliott of that city, formerly a teacher in Haverhill, Mass.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds has three Plymouth Rock rooters hatched last April that weigh nine, eleven and thirteen pounds, respectively.

It has been remarked by a number of people in town that no deer have been seen this winter, while a few years ago as many as fifteen were seen at one time when they herded together before a storm.

L. J. Wilcox has been obliged to suspend work on the state road from Newent and Lisbon station for the winter and is building a new street in Tatville.

The large piles of logs ready for the steam sawmill near the highway at Charles Budett's, are an interesting sight. Several neighbors have improved the opportunity to haul in their logs.

J. Frank Knight has received word that his grandson, Sidney Knight, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the base hospital in New Haven, is improving slowly.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds will speak on Sunday morning on "Duties of the Hour." This is the time for the annual contribution of the church to the A. B. C. F. M.

Must Be Kept Down.

Wealth is wealth, and it must be denounced and destroyed; it must not be permitted to raise its shameful head among honest pauperism and indolence. —Housten Post.

Discovered Officially.

Anyway, one will have to hand it to the Department of Justice for not being obstinate. It admits its conviction that food poisoning is being practiced. —Marion Star.

Last year a British cotton thread company made profits of more than $18,000,000. It now announces a dividend of 40 per cent.

There were twenty-four numbers on the dance card, which, with encores and an intermission for lunch, served by John Woodward, superintendent of the Aspinook hotel, brought the hour of closing well into another day.

If there is one pleasing feature about the annual firemen's ball that stands out above another it is the hearty cooperation and feeling of good fellowship that goes to make the entertainment the success it never fails to be. The committee to whom all praise is due were:

Master of Ceremonies—Thomas Talbot.

Floor Director—Joseph McCarthy.

Aides—John Driscoll, James Dugan, James Morey, John Blake, John Wilson, Louis Maase.

Reception Committee—Jenny Morey, Dennis Griffin, Alfonso Fontaine, Maria Cassavant, John Sharkey, Wm. Greiner.

Committee of Arrangements—William McGinn, Thomas Wakely, Moss L. Johnson.

The night being fair was exceptionally favorable for visitors. They were present from Norwich, Willimantic, Groton, Uxbridge, Taftsville, Putnam, Plainfield, Moosup, Wauregan, Danielson, New London and Providence.

Not the least of the many enjoyable features of the ball is noted in the fact that among the three hundred and seventy-five persons there were a year ago were doing duty in the army or serving the flag in the various assignments of the navy.

Three Polish boys about ten years of age left school Thursday afternoon, mounted a passing truck and took a ride out into the country. The boys did not return at night. Superintendent Clement was notified Friday morning.

The matter was reported to Officer Dolan Friday forenoon, he with the aid of the telephone located the boys on a Lisbon farm. The boys' mothers formed a committee of three, proceeded to said farm and claimed the boys. It is said that they carried a liberal supply of straw oil.

Mrs. Mar. Ashland theatre, Monday, 2:30, 6:45, 8:30. Children 25c; adults 35c—40c.

The extension school held for four days this week at Pachaug proved to be most instructive and beneficial. The community spirit was the principal subject Friday and when the session closed everybody was enthusiastic regarding a community club.

Miss Stella Takman has one of the prominent parts on the comedy being rehearsed by members of the Ashland club.

Rev. Clinton H. Andrews, of Oxford, Mass., will preach as candidate at the Congregational church Sunday.

At the Methodist church the subject for Sunday morning will be "God's Word East, Present and Future. Epworth league at 4 p. m. Leader A. R. Sanders. Subject, Medical Science and Chinese Leadership. Preaching at 7 p. m. Rev. J. B. Aldrich, pastor.

At the Baptist church at 10:45 Sunday morning the pastor will, as usual, preach to the juniors and the subject of the message to the seniors will be "The Larger Life." Church school at noon with adult and junior men's Bible classes. Young People's meeting at 8:15 led by Miss Alice Gilbert. At the vestry service at 7 o'clock, the prelude will deal with "The Night Colleges and Carrying the University to the Farm and Factory." Sermon topic, "The Right Road." Special gospel singing. Rev. M. D. Fuller, pastor evangelist.

The school in the Learned district has had another change of teachers. Mrs. Mayles who filled the vacancy caused by Miss Salmon's resignation in December was obliged to give up because of illness and after being closed two weeks, the school has opened this week with a new teacher.

Charles Budett and family have received word of the marriage in New Haven of Charles Budett, Jr., and Miss Elliott of that city, formerly a teacher in Haverhill, Mass.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds has three Plymouth Rock rooters hatched last April that weigh nine, eleven and thirteen pounds, respectively.

It has been remarked by a number of people in town that no deer have been seen this winter, while a few years ago as many as fifteen were seen at one time when they herded together before a storm.

L. J. Wilcox has been obliged to suspend work on the state road from Newent and Lisbon station for the winter and is building a new street in Tatville.

The large piles of logs ready for the steam sawmill near the highway at Charles Budett's, are an interesting sight. Several neighbors have improved the opportunity to haul in their logs.

J. Frank Knight has received word that his grandson, Sidney Knight, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the base hospital in New Haven, is improving slowly.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds will speak on Sunday morning on "Duties of the Hour." This is the time for the annual contribution of the church to the A. B. C. F. M.

Must Be Kept Down.

Wealth is wealth, and it must be denounced and destroyed; it must not be permitted to raise its shameful head among honest pauperism and indolence. —Housten Post.

Discovered Officially.

Anyway, one will have to hand it to the Department of Justice for not being obstinate. It admits its conviction that food poisoning is being practiced. —Marion Star.

Last year a British cotton thread company made profits of more than $18,000,000. It now announces a dividend of 40 per cent.

There were twenty-four numbers on the dance card, which, with encores and an intermission for lunch, served by John Woodward, superintendent of the Aspinook hotel, brought the hour of closing well into another day.

If there is one pleasing feature about the annual firemen's ball that stands out above another it is the hearty cooperation and feeling of good fellowship that goes to make the entertainment the success it never fails to be. The committee to whom all praise is due were:

Master of Ceremonies—Thomas Talbot.

Floor Director—Joseph McCarthy.

Aides—John Driscoll, James Dugan, James Morey, John Blake, John Wilson, Louis Maase.

Reception Committee—Jenny Morey, Dennis Griffin, Alfonso Fontaine, Maria Cassavant, John Sharkey, Wm. Greiner.

Committee of Arrangements—William McGinn, Thomas Wakely, Moss L. Johnson.

The night being fair was exceptionally favorable for visitors. They were present from Norwich, Willimantic, Groton, Uxbridge, Taftsville, Putnam, Plainfield, Moosup, Wauregan, Danielson, New London and Providence.

Not the least of the many enjoyable features of the ball is noted in the fact that among the three hundred and seventy-five persons there were a year ago were doing duty in the army or serving the flag in the various assignments of the navy.

Three Polish boys about ten years of age left school Thursday afternoon, mounted a passing truck and took a ride out into the country. The boys did not return at night. Superintendent Clement was notified Friday morning.

The matter was reported to Officer Dolan Friday forenoon, he with the aid of the telephone located the boys on a Lisbon farm. The boys' mothers formed a committee of three, proceeded to said farm and claimed the boys. It is said that they carried a liberal supply of straw oil.

Mrs. Mar. Ashland theatre, Monday, 2:30, 6:45, 8:30. Children 25c; adults 35c—40c.

The extension school held for four days this week at Pachaug proved to be most instructive and beneficial. The community spirit was the principal subject Friday and when the session closed everybody was enthusiastic regarding a community club.

Miss Stella Takman has one of the prominent parts on the comedy being rehearsed by members of the Ashland club.

Rev. Clinton H. Andrews, of Oxford, Mass., will preach as candidate at the Congregational church Sunday.

At the Methodist church the subject for Sunday morning will be "God's Word East, Present and Future. Epworth league at 4 p. m. Leader A. R. Sanders. Subject, Medical Science and Chinese Leadership. Preaching at 7 p. m. Rev. J. B. Aldrich, pastor.

At the Baptist church at 10:45 Sunday morning the pastor will, as usual, preach to the juniors and the subject of the message to the seniors will be "The Larger Life." Church school at noon with adult and junior men's Bible classes. Young People's meeting at 8:15 led by Miss Alice Gilbert. At the vestry service at 7 o'clock, the prelude will deal with "The Night Colleges and Carrying the University to the Farm and Factory." Sermon topic, "The Right Road." Special gospel singing. Rev. M. D. Fuller, pastor evangelist.

The school in the Learned district has had another change of teachers. Mrs. Mayles who filled the vacancy caused by Miss Salmon's resignation in December was obliged to give up because of illness and after being closed two weeks, the school has opened this week with a new teacher.

Charles Budett and family have received word of the marriage in New Haven of Charles Budett, Jr., and Miss Elliott of that city, formerly a teacher in Haverhill, Mass.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds has three Plymouth Rock rooters hatched last April that weigh nine, eleven and thirteen pounds, respectively.

It has been remarked by a number of people in town that no deer have been seen this winter, while a few years ago as many as fifteen were seen at one time when they herded together before a storm.

L. J. Wilcox has been obliged to suspend work on the state road from Newent and Lisbon station for the winter and is building a new street in Tatville.

The large piles of logs ready for the steam sawmill near the highway at Charles Budett's, are an interesting sight. Several neighbors have improved the opportunity to haul in their logs.

J. Frank Knight has received word that his grandson, Sidney Knight, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the base hospital in New Haven, is improving slowly.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds will speak on Sunday morning on "Duties of the Hour." This is the time for the annual contribution of the church to the A. B. C. F. M.

Must Be Kept Down.

Wealth is wealth, and it must be denounced and destroyed; it must not be permitted to raise its shameful head among honest pauperism and indolence. —Housten Post.

Discovered Officially.

Anyway, one will have to hand it to the Department of Justice for not being obstinate. It admits its conviction that food poisoning is being practiced. —Marion Star.

Last year a British cotton thread company made profits of more than $18,000,000. It now announces a dividend of 40 per cent.

There were twenty-four numbers on the dance card, which, with encores and an intermission for lunch, served by John Woodward, superintendent of the Aspinook hotel, brought the hour of closing well into another day.

If there is one pleasing feature about the annual firemen's ball that stands out above another it is the hearty cooperation and feeling of good fellowship that goes to make the entertainment the success it never fails to be. The committee to whom all praise is due were:

Master of Ceremonies—Thomas Talbot.

Floor Director—Joseph McCarthy.

Aides—John Driscoll, James Dugan, James Morey, John Blake, John Wilson, Louis Maase.

Reception Committee—Jenny Morey, Dennis Griffin, Alfonso Fontaine, Maria Cassavant, John Sharkey, Wm. Greiner.

Committee of Arrangements—William McGinn, Thomas Wakely, Moss L. Johnson.

The night being fair was exceptionally favorable for visitors. They were present from Norwich, Willimantic, Groton, Uxbridge, Taftsville, Putnam, Plainfield, Moosup, Wauregan, Danielson, New London and Providence.

Not the least of the many enjoyable features of the ball is noted in the fact that among the three hundred and seventy-five persons there were a year ago were doing duty in the army or serving the flag in the various assignments of the navy.

Three Polish boys about ten years of age left school Thursday afternoon, mounted a passing truck and took a ride out into the country. The boys did not return at night. Superintendent Clement was notified Friday morning.

The matter was reported to Officer Dolan Friday forenoon, he with the aid of the telephone located the boys on a Lisbon farm. The boys' mothers formed a committee of three, proceeded to said farm and claimed the boys. It is said that they carried a liberal supply of straw oil.

Mrs. Mar. Ashland theatre, Monday, 2:30, 6:45, 8:30. Children 25c; adults 35c—40c.

The extension school held for four days this week at Pachaug proved to be most instructive and beneficial. The community spirit was the principal subject Friday and when the session closed everybody was enthusiastic regarding a community club.

Miss Stella Takman has one of the prominent parts on the comedy being rehearsed by members of the Ashland club.

Rev. Clinton H. Andrews, of Oxford, Mass., will preach as candidate at the Congregational church Sunday.

At the Methodist church the subject for Sunday morning will be "God's Word East, Present and Future. Epworth league at 4 p. m. Leader A. R. Sanders. Subject, Medical Science and Chinese Leadership. Preaching at 7 p. m. Rev. J. B. Aldrich, pastor.

At the Baptist church at 10:45 Sunday morning the pastor will, as usual, preach to the juniors and the subject of the message to the seniors will be "The Larger Life." Church school at noon with adult and junior men's Bible classes. Young People's meeting at 8:15 led by Miss Alice Gilbert. At the vestry service at 7 o'clock, the prelude will deal with "The Night Colleges and Carrying the University to the Farm and Factory." Sermon topic, "The Right Road." Special gospel singing. Rev. M. D. Fuller, pastor evangelist.

The school in the Learned district has had another change of teachers. Mrs. Mayles who filled the vacancy caused by Miss Salmon's resignation in December was obliged to give up because of illness and after being closed two weeks, the school has opened this week with a new teacher.

Charles Budett and family have received word of the marriage in New Haven of Charles Budett, Jr., and Miss Elliott of that city, formerly a teacher in Haverhill, Mass.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds has three Plymouth Rock rooters hatched last April that weigh nine, eleven and thirteen pounds, respectively.

It has been remarked by a number of people in town that no deer have been seen this winter, while a few years ago as many as fifteen were seen at one time when they herded together before a storm.

L. J. Wilcox has been obliged to suspend work on the state road from Newent and Lisbon station for the winter and is building a new street in Tatville.

The large piles of logs ready for the steam sawmill near the highway at Charles Budett's, are an interesting sight. Several neighbors have improved the opportunity to haul in their logs.

J. Frank Knight has received word that his grandson, Sidney Knight, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the base hospital in New Haven, is improving slowly.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds will speak on Sunday morning on "Duties of the Hour." This is the time for the annual contribution of the church to the A. B. C. F. M.

Must Be Kept Down.

Wealth is wealth, and it must be denounced and destroyed; it must not be permitted to raise its shameful head among honest pauperism and indolence. —Housten Post.

Discovered Officially.

Anyway, one will have to hand it to the Department of Justice for not being obstinate. It admits its conviction that food poisoning is being practiced. —Marion Star.

Last year a British cotton thread company made profits of more than $18,000,000. It now announces a dividend of 40 per cent.